EXTENSION OF CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Guyana and the European Union are currently developing a Voluntary Partnership Agreement (VPA) under the EU Forest Law Enforcement Governance and Trade Program (EU-FLEGT). A Joint Road Map is guiding the process and a number of deliverables have been completed including four negotiation sessions. The UK Department of International Development (DFID) is supporting this process and funding has been earmarked for eligible groups or persons. The National Technical Working Group (NTWG) which is coordinating the preparation of the VPA now invites applications from eligible groups or persons.

Please note as part of the application process the FLEGT Facilitation Support Office (FFSO) will conduct due diligence verification of all applicants. The FFSSO and the FLEGT Secretariat will also provide guidance to intended applicants. The application process, forms and criteria can be found on the GFC website under the EU FLEGT tab; or can be uplifted from the FLEGT Secretariat in person or by Emailing euflegtapplications@gmail.com.
